

CENTER FOR WORLD MUSIC

SUMMER WORLD MUSIC SERIES 2016

Seaport Village East Gazebo near Buster's Beach House  Free!

Zimbeat

June 4, 11:00 am - 1:00 pm

Music of Zimbabwe

Max Berry, Randy Griswold, and Garit Imhoff

Enjoy the dynamic village music of Southern Africa with Zimbeat. The music is based on the Shona peoples' ancient musical instrument, the mbira dzavadzimu. Get carried away by the hypnotic interlocking melodies and spirited rhythms in the captivating and compelling instrumental music that is found in traditional and contemporary Zimbabwe.

Photograph by Jolyne L. Harris

Son de San Diego

June 11, 11:00 am - 1:00 pm

Strings of Southeast Mexico

Eduardo García, Cris Juárez, and Germa Lita

Come listen to the strumming guitars of sunny Southeast Mexico and lighten up your dance step at this informal concert of traditional "son jarocho" music from Veracruz. With its infectious rhythms and good-natured song lyrics, this indigenous dance music blends the best of different musical styles in Mexico: Spanish, African, and native Indian.

Trio Zheni

June 18, 11:00 am - 1:00 pm

Vocal Harmonies of the Balkans and Beyond

Stacey Barnett, Mary Ann Downs, and Marie Hayes

"Trio Zheni" is Bulgarian for "Trio of Women," and this trio is sure to mesmerize as they weave their vocal tapestry of mysterious and powerful harmonies from Eastern Europe. The group delights in bringing to American ears the distinctive melodies, harmonies and rhythms of these timeless traditional songs.

Financial support provided by the City of San Diego
Commission for Arts and Culture.

Visit centerforworldmusic.org/events/
for more information.

